Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $30,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

In something of a chaos, like all expositions begin, the opening of the Jamestown Exposition Friday in commemoration of the first English settlement in America 300 years ago, will yet offer a magnificent spectacle to sightseers in the superb array of warships now gathered under Admiral Evans in Hampton Roads. There, in a line, lies the most formidable fleet ever assembled at one time in American waters. Not a foreign ship has yet arrived.

The ships lie across the historic roadstead in a line, one end near the Esplanade of Old Point Comfort and the other four miles away on the other side. Sixteen United States battleships are in that line.

The approximate cost of these ships is about $129,000,000, and the total tonnage is 283,600. The combined crews of the vessels total 798 officers and 14,162 men, and the total number of guns carried by the ships is 1092.

The plans for the complete line-up of the naval display assign the visiting ships in the following order: The three Brazilian visitors will have place at the head of the line and abeam of the Georgia, the New Jersey and the Rhode Island.

Abeam of the other American battleships and the order in which they were mentioned will anchor the four ships of Great Britain a space being left abeam of the flagship Connecticut for the presidential yacht the Mayflower. Then will come the two German cruisers, next the two cruisers of Austria, then the Chilean, the Argentine, the Swedish and the Portuguese representative, the last taking position abeam of the Indiana.

England's squadron will be the largest and most formidable of those to visit the United States and will be exceeded in size only by the American fleet. Japan and France will send the next largest squadrons. The foreign vessels will be in nearly all cases armored and protected cruisers. England's largest ship will be the cruiser Good Hope, sister ship to the powerful cruiser Drake. The Good Hope's displacement is 14,100 tons and her trial speed 23 knots an hour. The English squadron will be commanded by Rear Admiral Neville.

Under the command of Rear Admiral Thierry, France will send three cruisers. The protected cruiser Jean Bart was originally designated, but she has been wrecked off the coast of Africa, and another vessel will be sent in her place. The largest of the squadron will be the Victor Hugo, with a displacement of 12,550 tons.

One of the most interesting visiting squadrons will be that from Japan. One of the Japanese vessels is the Tsukuba, a newly-launched ship, built at Kur, entirely of Japanese construction and equipment. She is of 14,000 tons and 22.4 knots speed, armed with eight-inch quick-firers in barbettes fore and aft and smaller calibre in proportion. The protected cruiser Chitose accompanies the Tsukuba. These vessels attain great speed. Vice Admiral Ijuin will be in command.

Germany will send a fleet of vessels consisting of the warships Roon, Bremen and Panther. The Roon is of 9050 tons displacement. The Bremen and Panther are now in Hampton Roads at the Newport News shipyards undergoing repairs. All these vessels are under the command of Commodore Kalau von Hofe.

The ceremonies incident to the formal opening of the exposition will be under the direction of Mr. G. T. Shepperd, secretary of the Exposition Company, assisted by Lieutenant P. H. Bagby, Sixth United States Infantry, military attache of the department of the secretary.

At sunrise on April 26 the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, stationed at the exposition grounds, will fire a salute of 300 guns to usher in the day of the opening. Upon the arrival of President Roosevelt on the Mayflower in Hampton Roads a salute will be fired by the United States and foreign warships there assembled.

Promptly at 11:30 the President will be escorted to the reviewing stand, on Lee's Parade in the rear of the Auditorium building, where the following exercises will take place:

1. Opening prayer by Rt. Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, bishop of the diocese of Southern Virginia.
2. Address and introduction of the President of the United States by Mr. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Company.
3. Address by President Roosevelt.
4. Opening of the exposition by President Roosevelt.

When the President presses the gold button starting the machinery of the exposition in motion it will at the same time be the signal for the unfurling of more that 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition.

Immediately thereafter President Roosevelt will review the parade, of which Major General Frederick D. Grant, of the U. S. army, will be the grand marshal, which will be participated in by the soldiers and sailors of the United States and foreign governments and the national guard. The governors of the different States having military representation will participate in the parade.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poison enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by E. S Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Jonah and the Whale.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 23.—That the biblical account of Jonah and the whale is not a myth was a point in the address delivered by Prof. Paul Haupt, of Johns Hopkins University, before the American Philosophical Society Saturday. The title of his address was "On Jonah's Whale," and he began by saying that in Mathew xii. 40, Jesus did not make use of the story in such a way as to become authority for the literal truth of Jonah's books. He declared that, despite the contention that the whale's gullet was too small to admit the passage of a body of anything like the dimensions of a man, there existed, nevertheless, the Mediterranean sperm whale, with an orifice large enough to swallow animals larger than a man. Professor Haupt found in the record of the King of Assyria, 1100 B. C., that a "blower with ivory teeth" was killed at Alexandretta. This description answered perfectly to the sperm whale, and it undoubtedly had appeared in the Mediterranean.

THE DRINKING OF WATER.

It is said to be a fact that a great many people do not drink sufficient water. Whether this is due to the unpalatability of the water supplied to not a few of the cities of this country or to other causes, the fact is said to remain, and the statement is made that directly thereto is to be traced not a little of the sickness doctors are called upon to treat. Especially is this true of disorders of the kidneys and bladder, which organs are said to be greatly benefited by the flushing that naturally follows the free use of good drinking water. The lack of such flushing is asserted to be in large measure responsible for many of the kidney and bladder disorders with which physicians have to contend. A favorite and successful treatment for such cases, used by progressive medical men, consists of the administration three times a day of a tablespoonful of this prescription, which any first class pharmacist can compound: 1-4 oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1-4 oz. Fluid Extract of Uva Ursi, 1 oz. Amet Cordial, 1-4 oz. Fluid Extract of Liverwort and 15 ozs. water. A feature of this treatment is the direction to the patient to drink plenty of water and to continue the use of the medicine for at least a month, in order that the impurities which cause the disorder may be entirely eliminated from the system.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 23, 1907.

Former Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, now president of the Carnegie Trust Company, of New York, still holds pessimistic views entertained by him shortly before retiring from official life. His business experience at New York has not convinced him that prosperity is becoming top heavy. "There is a halt in prosperity," he emphatically declared Saturday afternoon, while in Washington. Continuing he said: "I am not a calamity howler, and we are not going to have a panic. There is a halt which will continue for a time. When the onward march will be resumed cannot be forecasted. I think the halt is merely temporary. We have been going at a fast pace for many months, and it is only natural that there should be a period of stock-taking, an interval of dullness during which we may look around and ascertain just where we stand. During this period of comparative dullness there may be some readjusting going on, but I do not see the slightest indication of widespread depression or a panic. The conditions are not at hand to cause a panic. The country is all right and the people are all right and we are going to have great prosperity. It is only proper that we should stop long enough to take stock, and I have no doubt that as soon as we find out where we are we will decide that the prosperity we have tasted was good and will want more of it."

THE FINAL act in the tragedy in which Miss Mabel Pendleton and Stuart Gay lost their lives, was closed at Clifton Forge, Va., yesterday with the funeral service and burial of the two young people. At least 2,000 persons followed the remains to the cemetery, where the bodies were laid to rest in the same grave. The sad termination of the courtship and intended marriage of this young couple was read far and near a few days ago. They had determined to wed, but had been intercepted and forced to return home before they could be made man and wife. The would-be bride later threw herself into the river and her faithful lover jumped into the water for the purpose of rescuing her. When he drew near the young woman she clasped her arms around his neck and the young couple drowned in each other's embrace. Such instances in human life are pathetic and appeal to the sympathies of all who read of them. The lovers now sleep under the same mound and anguish has been brought to at least two households. Those who frustrated the designs of the young man and young woman were doubtless actuated by good motives, but could their eyes have peered into coming events they would have allowed the couple to carry out their wishes.

LYNCH LAW has been inaugurated in Russia by the nationalists to put an end to the socialistic outrages at Lodz, Russian Poland. Having captured one of three socialists who murdered a 15-year-old girl, the nationalists took their prisoner to the outskirts of St. Petersburg, tried him, sentenced him to death by hanging and carried out the sentence. Last week's victims of nationalist and socialist fights totaled 23 killed and 57 wounded. The majority of the casualties were among the socialists. Russia has long been a storm-tossed empire, and conditions seem to have improved but little during the the past year.

FIFTY-THREE men out of a venire of 100 summoned for the third trial of Policeman Michael J. McNamara, charged with killing his wife and John J. Brophy, her paramour, in St. Louis on August 23, 1906, were excused yesterday by Circuit Judge Sale after they had sworn they believed in the "unwritten law." Each of the 53 said he would refuse to vote for conviction if the "unwritten law" was pleaded in McNamara's defense. Lex non scripta seems to be gradually asserting itself, and it is likely to become more firmly entrenched if certain crimes continue to grow.

FIFTY-ONE more men than women were counted at the morning services in the Lincoln Park Baptist Church, in Cincinnati Sunday. The church presented a peculiar appearance at the service referred to, and to a casual onlooker the careful separation in seating men on the north side and women on the south, with its old fashioned puritanical congregation, was a contrast to the twentieth century conditions. In this day the great majority of church-goers are women, but why this should be the case is hard to understand.

ONE year has passed since the destruction of San Francisco by earthquake and fire. It will be a long time before all the individual financial losses shall be recouped, and many of these, distributed by fire insurance companies, were suffered in the East. But the world was exceedingly prompt to relieve immediate distress, and the commercial recuperation has been almost incredibly rapid. It was the greatest disaster of its class, and it called out unprecedented generosity.

THE "tunnel corner" has for years been the most noisy section of the city, the police giving themselves no concern in the matter. Recently a gentleman who had moved to that neighborhood and whose protests for order were unheeded secured the arrest of several of the noisy men and boys. These were fined, and now "tunnel town" is the most quiet section in Alexandria. This is but an earnest of what the police could do if they only would.

From Washington.

Washington, April 23.

The Supreme Court of the United States was asked today to declare illegal, under the constitution, a trial because the jury that convicted the accused of first degree murder had been promised "front seats at the hanging," as a reward for conviction. The case is that of William Spaugh, of Iron county, Mo., who killed the sheriff. Attorneys for Spaugh in arguing the case today said that the new sheriff, a man named Jordan, exercised undue influence over the jury that tried him, laying emphasis on the affidavit of Joseph A. Howard, a preacher, that Albert Chi, one of the jurors, told that Jordan not only promised to let the jury witness the hanging but gave the jurymen whisky during their deliberations. Spaugh's attorney base their appeal for a new trial on the Caleb Powers decision. They say: "Since the late decision of the Federal Supreme Court, in the case of Caleb Powers of Kentucky, there can be no question raised by the State, or the appellee, as to the jurisdiction of the Federal Supreme Court to review the final decision of the State court as to whether or not local prejudice, undue influence, improper act of the sheriff and guards in charge of the jury and the use of liquor prejudiced the jury against the appellant or accused to such an extent as to deny him a fair and impartial trial."

"I have so many important things on my mind that I have not time to think much of politics," said Secretary of War Taft today in response to an inquiry. "The fact is I don't know any politics and am not ready to talk on that subject. I am going out to Ohio to fill some engagements that I made some time ago but in the speeches that I shall make I shall not touch upon the political situation." This was the Secretary's statement before he went to the Cabinet meeting and prior to the conference that it is expected he will have with the President today. Whether as a result of that conference he will change his mind is yet to be indicated. The Secretary further said: "Besides the questions in Panama and Cuba which I settled while there I have brought back with me a number of important matters which will have to be decided later in consultation with the President. Where they are of public interest announcement will be made as decisions are reached. The situation in Panama is very satisfactory and encouraging. The work on the canal has lost that formless, discouraging aspect that it had in the beginning. They have begun to excavate for the Gatum locks and they have begun the building of the great dam at that point. As to labor troubles, it would be surprising if, among an army of 30,000 employes, there would not be some who thought they were not getting enough return in for their labor. I have made my report on the subject but I understand that it has not yet been acted upon by the President."

Senator Borah, of Idaho, against whom the grand jury at Boise is supposed to have found an indictment for alleged connection with certain timber law violations, called at the White House today and had a long talk with the President. After his interview he said that the subject of his case had not been mentioned during the interview. "I have no information whatever about the alleged indictment," said Senator Borah, "and do not know that one has been returned. Senator Borah is a special attorney employed by the State to prosecute Moyer and Haywood for the murder of Governor Steunenberg.

Within the next twenty-four hours it will be determined whether the fighting in Central America shall be resumed or whether a peaceful settlement can be reached. This statement was made today by Senor Mejia, the Minister of Salvador, who, in company with Ambassador Creel, of Mexico, called at the State Department to discuss the situation with Assistant Secretary of State Bacon. The conference between the representatives of Salvador and Nicaragua, at Amapala, is still in a deadlock over the demand made by Nicaragua that Salvador should bear some proportion of the expense of the recent war in which Salvador assisted former President Bonilla of Honduras whom the Nicaraguan forces put to flight and finally sent into exile. A strong effort is being made to bring about a compromise but Senor Mejia says that the outlook is not bright. Salvador has an army of 20,000 men guarding the frontier. In the event of the failure of the Amapala conference a renewal of the fighting within the next few days is expected.

It is stated this afternoon that a proposition is being seriously considered by the Central American representatives to have all negotiations at Amapala discontinued and to bring the whole matter to Washington to be settled in general conference with President Roosevelt as arbitrator.

Party rate tickets for railroad transportation cannot be limited to particular classes of persons, but must be opened to the general public, according to the emphatic and final decision of the Interstate Commerce Commision, announced today in an opinion by Commissioner Prouty. In event the railroads do not accept this interpretation, the Commission will defend its position in the courts. "We are unable to see," says the commission, "how the carriage of ten persons belonging to an amusement company, as a party, differs from the carriage of ten other persons, as a party, in the same train, at the same time, and between the same points; and we are therefore of the opinion that the party rate ticket must be open to the general public." Commissioner Harlan rendered a dissenting opinion, in which Chairman Knapp concurred. Commission Cockrell took no part in the consideration.

Archie B. Hughes, the postmaster at Columbia, Tenn., who was recently dropped from office by order of Postmaster General Cortelyou, called at the White House today to lay his case before the President. Representative Gaines, a democrat, accompanied Mr. Hughes, and made a strong argument in his behalf. The charges against me were all false from beginning to end," said Mr. Hughes. "They say I absented myself from my office too much."

Representatives of the express companies of the United States conferred today with the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission in regard to the time when the tariff of rates must be on file in the office of the commission. As a result of the conference, the companies will have until July 1.

Expiating his crime of wife murder, William Burgo, a negro, was hanged at the United States jail here at 12:05 o'clock today, more than four years after the commission of the crime. Burge shot his wife, Daisy, because she refused to live with him. Motions for a new trial based on a defense of insanity and appeals to higher courts and finally to the President of the United States delayed the execution until today.

Argument for the defense in the Binger Hermann case was presented to the jury today by A. S. Worthington. He talked all day and will probably finish tomorrow, when District Attorney Baker will close for the prosecution.

The Sioux City (Iowa) Commercial Club filed a complaint before the Interstate Commerce Commission today against the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Illinois Central, the Rock Island and other railroads alleging unreasonable and unjust rates from Chicago to Sioux City. It is alleged that the railroads discriminate against merchant and jobbers in Sioux City in favor of dealers in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

N., has arrived here from the Asiatic station, and will proceed to his home in North Carolina there to take part in the unveiling of the monument to his brother, Ensign Worth Bagley, the only naval officer killed in the Spanish-American war. Killed Daughter's Suitor.

Former County Judge W. G. Loving, of Nelson county, superintendent of the estate of Thomas F. Ryan, shot and instantly killed Theodore Estes, aged twenty-five, son of M. K. Estes, sheriff of Nelson county, at Oakridge yesterday afternoon. The weapon used was a double-barreled shotgun, loaded with buckshot. Loving is in custody. The attentions of young Estes to Loving's daughter are said to have been the cause of the shooting.

Judge Loving about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon drove to the home of young Estes, at Lovingston, and asked for him. Being told that he was not there, he drove back to Oakridge and found Estes at the station looking after the unloading of a car of fertilizer.

Judge Loving approached the car and ordered the two negroes in the car to stand aside. He then opened fire, the first load of shot entering Estes' right side, the second striking him in the neck, killing him instantly.

Immediately after the shooting Judge Loving requested Thomas McGinnis, merchant and liveryman at Oakridge, to a company him to Elmington, where he surrendered himself to T. B. N. Perkins, a justice of the peace.

Judge Loving has been managing the Oakridge farm near Oakridge for Thomas Ryan, of New York, for some time. Estes was connected with his father in a large mercantile, fertilizer, and implement business, at Lovingston. It is said that he was unarmed at the time of the shooting.

The principals to the tragedy are among the most prominent people in Nelson county. Estes was a connection by marriage of Gov. Swanson.

Mrs. Brown inherited part of the fortune of the late General Brown, and she owns one of the most beautiful homes in Baltimore county.

Talbott and Tom Walker. All of the above named are now in jail. The ages of the boys range from fifteen to twenty-one years. The assault appears to have been provoked by the boys throwing rocks at the woman, who then cursed them. Their defense will be that the woman fired twice at them before they closed in on her and beat and cut her to death. She was dressed in men clothes for the purpose of spying on one of her admirers.

Killed by a Train.

Geo. Perkinson, a Chesterfield county farmer, and his sister, Mrs. John Shell, were instantly killed by a Seaboard Air Line wrecking train shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning at a crossing near Swift Creek, in Chesterfield county, about three miles from Petersburg. Mrs. Shell's 14-year-old daughter, Rose, was seriously injured. The three were in a two-horse wagon which was knocked to splinters by the locomotive, the occupants being thrown about 75 feet from the track. The scene of the accident was in a cut less than 200 yards south of the creek and about 75 yards from the Swift Creek village public school. A curving track and a hill between the creek and the road crossing prevented the unfortunate people from seeing the approaching train.

Several cars of a freight train went through a wooden bridge over Hatcher's run, on the Seaboard Air Line Railway, near Burgess, in Dinwiddie county, early yesterday morning. After the locomotive and six cars had crossed one of the cars, loaded with matches, quickly blazed up amid the mass of wreckage and nearly all the train was burned up, including the bridge. The wrecking train which killed the people at Swift Creek was going to this wreck.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Douglass, the Defaulter.

New York, April 23.—Following the discovery of $20,000 or more of the bonds taken by Wm. O. Douglass, the defaulting employee of the Trust Company of America, concealed in the bed of Oliver M. Bennett, one of the brokers with whom Douglass had dealings at the exclusive Manhattan Club, detectives working on the case declared today that before their investigation is completed there will probably be some sensational disclosures, showing that Douglass's game was one of the most remarkable deals ever developed in Wall street. One or more arrests in the matter were openly hinted at.

The greatest secrecy is maintained as to the exact face value of the bonds taken by Douglass, but from one source it was learned they exceed $100,000. All the officers deny, however, the amount will reach the $250,000 mark set by Douglass to his peculations.

Detectives who have been investigating Bennett's career have unearthed much about him, showing that he was connected with several Boston concerns which failed. Mrs. Wm. O. Douglass, wife of the defaulting employe, was located today at the home of her father, a wealthy retired merchant, in East New York. She disappeared after Douglass's arrest in the Hotel Portland early Sunday, and this led to the belief that she might have killed herself or met with some mishap.

At a meeting of the executive meeting of the Trust Company of America a statement was given out that Douglass had stolen certain securities, that some of the secutities had been practically hypothecated by S. D. Bennett with brokerage houses and that maximum loss would not exceed $140,000. It was rumored at police headquarters today that Bennett had been taken into custody, but the detective bureau had no knowledge of his arrest.

Fires and Loss of Life.

New York, April 23.—Four men are dead, three are missing and ten firemen are injured in early morning blazes on the East Side today. Two fire engines were wrected in collision with street cars, 250 horses were burned to death, and a property loss of $200,000 completed the record of loss. Practically every fire company on the East Side was in action for hours.

Six alarms were sounded from various points, and it is estimated that three hundred families were driven from their homes by flames.

The most serious fire destroyed the Dispatch Express Company's stables, where the men and horses lost their lives.

What was the most difficult part of the fire to fight was the repair shop of the New York Central Railroad. Many locomotives, passenger coaches, Pullmans and freight cars were destroyed. The loss will be very heavy.

The hose had to be stretched across a score of tracks from either side over the tops of cars, and in this way hose enough to reach the fire was secured.

The Drago Doctrine.

London, April 23.—The announcement from Buenos Ayres that Dr. Luis Drago, who, as foreign minister of Argentina, advanced the Drago doctrine, has been selected as one of Argentina's delegates to the coming Hague conference, is regarded by British statesmen as practically notice to the other powers which will be represented at the Hague that the Drago doctrine will be advanced for adoption as a principle of international law.

Dr. Roque Saenz Pena and Carlos Rodriguez, who have been named with Dr. Drago, are both strong supporters of the doctrine.

Fears have been entertained that any effort to foist the Drago doctrine on the Hague conference would lead to a serious disagreement. Briefly stated, this doctrion sets out that no power shall employ force to collect a monetary claim due a citizen of that power.

European nations, in view of the large claims held by their subjects in South American countries, do not look with great favor on the doctrine and it is not believed they will accept it as a part of international law.

Brush and Forest Fires.

Boston, April 23.—The late spring and the recent dry weather has allowed an unusally large number of brush and forest fires to start in the thinly settled parts of New England. During the past 48 hours flames have destroyed thousands of dollar's worth of timber lands in Middleboro, Carver, Plymouth and Wareham in this State, and in other New England states the damage has been heavy. Two families are homeless in Middleboro because of brush fires getting beyond control of the fire fighters.

A gale is blowing a fire which threatens to wipe out many of the fine summer places owned in the section.

Two houses were destroyed and many acres of woodland burned over near the shore of Canobie Lake, N. H.

By a hard struggle in beating back the flames a party of sixty men of the neighborhood succeeded in saving the district school. The damage is estimated at $10,000.

Fire at Toulon Arsenal.

Toulon, April 23.—The fire at the arsenal here was brought under control today after burning over a large tract of ground and causing damage which will reach to many millions of francs. Twenty soldiers were hurt in fighting the flames.

All the buildings for a distance of 300 yards were burned including the fleet workshops and torpedo school. Papers of the commission investigating the recent accident to the warship Jena were destroyed.

For a while the flames threatened the military barracks and the soldiers were hurriedly ordered to evacuate them. By a great effort they were saved. All ships at the arsenal were saved.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The Nelson County Tragedy.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, April 23.—The killing of Theodore Estes, aged 25, in Nelson county yesterday afternoon by ex-Judge W. G. Loving, has caused a tremendous sensation throughout the State. The parties are all prominent. Gov. Swanson's brother is the husband of young Estes's sister.

A telegram from Lovingston gives the first intimation of Estes' offense. The telegram says that the rumor is current there that Estes went driving with the 19-year-old daughter of Judge Loving Sunday and returned her in an unconscious condition. She appeared as if she might have been drugged.

Baron de Massey on Trial.

New York, April 23.—Baroness Anesia Louise de Massy was put on trial today before Justice Blanchard in the Supreme Court for the murder of Gustav Simon, a millionaire shirt manufacturer, who was shot to death last November in his office. Aside from the mystery of her personality, there is abundant mystery in her life story. It has leaked out that she comes of a noble family which was impoverished in the French revolution. When still a girl she married Baron Massey, a friend of the de Castellanes. One year later he died suddenly, of poison, administered by a secret enemy, so his wife claimed. The young widow came to this country with a view, it is said, to hunting down the assassin. She had been here for nineteen years, living alone, it seems, nursing her revenge in seclusion. It has been intimated that the killing of Simon had a direct bearing upon the poisoning of her husband. Attorney Le Barbier stated today that the defense was prepared to show that the Baroness was in Simon's office trying to collect wages due her; that another person was lying in wait to slay him, and did so just as the Baroness was walking down the stairs.

Disorder in Paris.

Paris, April 23.—With cuirassiers and mounted police patroling the streets Paris, the city of pleasure, today presented the appearance of being in a state of siege. Strong detachments of its police occupied many squares and gendarmes, armed with heavy night sticks, kept the crowds in many thoroughfares moving, adding to the excitement.

The most serious labor riots Paris has faced for many days were responsible for the calling out of the mounted soldiers and extra police forces. Strikes of the waiters, bakers and other food-producing trades unions who attempted demonstrations in the streets, caused riots in various quarters of the city. The worst outbreak occurred before the annex to the Labor Exchange. There thousands of strikers and their sympathizers gathered, and it was necessary to call out cuirassiers to disperse the mob. The troopers were then kept on duty to prevent further rioting.

All possible leniency was shown in dealing with the strikers and only seven arrests were made in the riot at the annex.

Trailed Him to House.

Bridgewood, N. J., April 23.—Frederick W. Gardner, township tax collector and justice of the peace, committed suicide here last night by shooting himself in the head when his wife found him at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Egner.

Gardner had been paying attentions to Mrs. Egner, whose husband is a blacksmith, for some time. He was a lover of horses, and Mrs. Egner, it was said, first got into his good graces by taking him out frequently behind a fast horse she owned.

Recently Mrs. Gardner heard of her husband's attentions to the woman, and, suspecting last night that he was going to the Egner house, followed him.

When she had assured herself that her husband was inside, she entered and found the pair in the sitting-room. Gardner drew a revolver and shot himself in the back of the head as soon as his wife appeared on the scene. Gardner was about 56 years old, and had been justice of the peace for five years. He has been married for about thirty years, and has a 13-year-old daughter.

Assassins Sentenced.

St. Petersburg, April 23.—Eleven years' imprisonment in the mines is the sentence which has been given a student named Illinsky by court martial at Turer for the assassination of Count Alexis Igantieff. Tselovsky, an accomplice, was sentenced to deportation for life. The defendants protested that they should have been tried by the ordinary law, but were not heeded. Count Igantieff, a member of the council of the empire, and former Governor of Kief, Volhynia and Podelia, was killed on December 22 last. He was regarded by terrorists as the instigator of the trials by drum head court martial.

Mr. Bryan in Massachusetts.

Boston, April 23.—A busy day for William J. Bryan began today when he reached Boston from Fall River, and went at once to the Algonquin Club, to attend the breakfast given in his honor by Governor Guild. The other guests were former officers of the Seventh Army Corps in which Col. Bryan served during the Spanish American war. After the governor's breakfast, Mr. Bryan addressed the Harvard Symposium Club, and at 2 p. m. left for Lawrence, where he speaks this afternoon. From there he goes to Lowell, to speak this evening.

Conference of Miners.

Fernie, B. C., April 23.—A conference of miners and mine operators is being held here today to bring to an end, if possible, the coal strike. Both sides are anxious for a settlement. McKenzie King, labor commissioner of the federal government, members of the government board, and Alberta provincial officials are present. Great apprehension prevails over British Columbia and the new provinces owing to lack of food and fuel supplies, which may come with the continuance of the strike.

Murder and Attempted Suicide.

Boston, April 23.—During a violent quarrel, John U. Sherry shot and killed his wife, Mary, and then sent a bullet into his own head, at their home in Roxbury, early today. The man was still living when removed to the city hospital, but has no chance for recovery. Sherry was formerly in an insane asylum. The couple were married two years ago and had quarrelled constantly.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 23.—Although the stock market took a good many stocks in the first hour, there was an improvement over the price levels reached on the advance yesterday. In the higher-priced stocks slight fractional gains were noted. The market generally was much narrower than in the same period yesterday.

"Tainted Money."

Boston, April 23.—Chancellor Day of Syracuse University broke loose again in defense of "Tainted Money," last night, at the meeting of the Methodist Social Union. "Tainted Money," he said, "is money, nevertheless, it is only made tainted by the judgment of the demagogue and Pharaisee and is good enough for all practical purposes such as the building of college buildings. "What we want is a little godly worldliness in our churches, he said. "It goes hand in hand with spirituality. We ought to have the prayer and dollars but in some cases dollars before prayers." He urged that the church should take up the corporation method of today, and recognize that it would be vastly more effective to have a large and magnificent religious centres in a city strategically located instead of hundreds of "little decorated walling places on side streets, where people gathered to tell each other how good they are."

Fire in Chicago.

Chicago, April 23.—Two men injured, one fatally and $75,000 property loss resulted from a fire which started early today in the pickle plant of Bunge & Co., and drove twenty families in adjoining buildings to the street. John Wasko, the watchman, who discovered the fire, was cut off by the flames and jumped from the fourth floor, breaking his back. He will die.

Fear Anti-Jewish Pogroms.

St. Petersburg, April 23.—That the government fears an attempt to organize wholesale anti-Jewish pogroms are to be made at the approaching Easter holidays, which begin April 28, was shown today when Premier Stolypin assured a delegation from the Douma that extraordinary precautions are being taken to protect all Jews at that time. Orders have been telegraphed to all provincial authorities, he said, directing them to take all steps necessary to prevent massacres and preserve order. Easter comes on May 5, and is the day the Jews mostly dread. They have received many warnings that pogroms are to be instituted. There were six deputies in the delegation that waited on the Premier today to demand protection for their race.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

There were also present a large number of relatives and friends and acquaintances of the deceased including some from other cities. Oriental Lodge of Knights of Pythias and Alva Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, of which organizations Mr. Simpson had been a member, attended in bodies. The funeral cortege was large and imposing, and as it moved toward the cemetery the bell in the City Hall tolled solemnly. A detachment of policemen, consisting of Chief Goods, Lieutenant Bettis and Officers Nicholson, Lyles, Ferguson, Gill, Sherwood, Garvey, Knight, and Beach also formed part of the procession. The pallbearers were Aldermen J. R. N. Curtis and W. H. Sweeney; Hubert Snowden, president of the Common Council; E. F. Price, city auditor; Police Commissioner Thomas A. Fisher, Samuel L. Monroe, representing Oriental Lodge, Knights of Pythias; Dr. E. A. Gorman, representing Alva Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and Mr. J. P. Robinson. The services at the grave by the Knights of Pythias and the Eagles were very impressive. The remains were placed temporarily in the Henderson vault in the Methodist Protestant Cemetery. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful.

Death of Capt. Entwisle.

Capt. Charles F. Entwisle, whose serious illness had been mentioned in yesterday's Gazette, died at his residence 437 north Columbus street, about 8 o'clock last night. The deceased was sixty-one years old. Capt. Entwisle had suffered for some time from valvular affection of the heart. He leaves a widow (daughter of the late James Fossett) and five children, three daughters and two sons—Misses Florence M., Mary A. and Margaret Entwisle and Charles W. Entwisle and Bertine Entwisle. Captain Entwisle was one of the most generally known residents of Alexandria. He was a son of the late Isaac Entwisle, who for many years was a well-known steamboat man, having at times been engineer and captain of ferry boats plying between this city and Washington. The subject of this notice engaged in the same occupation in early life and followed it up to a few years ago. He was for a long time captain of one of the ferry steamers, and later had charge of the old Aquia creek mail steamer Charlotte Vanderbilt which ran as an excursion boat between Washington, Alexandria and Piney Point. He was also at one time captain of the steamer T. V. Arrowsmith which ran on the same route. During past years he had conducted a grocery store on north Columbus street.

Flags on river steamers have been flying at half-mast today in respect to the memory of Capt. Entwisle.

Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch

All lovers of this charming little book, by Alice Caldwell Hegan, should not miss the play that will be given at the Opera House on May 9th and 10th. This is not a combination of Lovey Mary and Mrs. Wiggs, but is a careful illustration of the one story. The play was written by Mrs. Oscar F. Carter and will be staged by Mrs. Matthew W. O'Brien, Miss Rose McDonald and Mrs. Carter. It will be given for the benefit of two cots in the children's ward at the Alexandria Hospital—the Ministering Children's League and the Maria Byrd Sharp cots. Tickets will be on sale at Warfield's drug store, King street, next Thursday.

Funeral of Mrs. Bryan.

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Pattison Bryan, widow of George Bryan, who died last Saturday night, took place this evening from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Caroline S. Pitts, No. 1000 Prince street, and was attended by a large number of friends of the family. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church, conducted the services, and the interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. G. Wm. Ramsay, Wm. A. Smoot, George Wise, Laurence Stabler, Chas. King and Dr. Arthur Snowden.

New Pier at Fort Hunt.

The quartermaster department, U. S. A., is about to make another effort to build a new pier at Fort Hunt, on the Potomac, opposite Fort Washington. It is proposed to erect the new pier about a quarter of a mile to the north of the present one, and it will only be about half the length of the old pier. In order to get deep water for the landing of vessels at the proposed new pier, it will be necessary to do considerable dredging through the Virginia flats in order to make a basin in front of the pier.

Charged With Desertion.

Mrs. John F. Dugan, of Alexandria, has written Chief of Police of Richmond asking him to look for her husband, who, she alleges, deserted her and her child three weeks ago. Dugan is an iron molder by trade, and is thought to have gone to Richmond. Mrs. Dugan says she and her child are in desperate circumstances, and that unless the father and husband returns home they will be cast upon the community. [It is understood that Mr. Dugan returned home last night.]

Polyandrist Evangelist.

Ida M. Scofield, the "singing girl evangelist," pleaded guilty of having three husbands when arraigned on a charge of bigamy in Justice McCarthy's court in Jersey City, N. J., yesterday. She was held in $1,000 bail as a fugitive from justice.

Detective Sergeant Clark, of Brooklyn, told Justice McCarthy that the woman was married to William Broadmeadow, a conductor on the Greenville trolley line, on February 28, by Rev. J. Williams, a Baptist minister, in Brooklyn. He said her maiden name was Mary E. Osborne.

Several years ago, he said, Ida was married to a man named Scofield in Hackensack. On June 4, 1904, she married John Landigan, a farmer, in Short Hills, whom she deserted in less than a week.

The marriage was performed by Rev. Thomas E. Bridges in Newark. When she deserted Landigan she is said to have taken about $400 of his money with her.

Landigan and Broadmeadow said they learned of the marriages and traced the woman to Jersey City. They consulted District Attorney McCafferty in Brooklyn, and he told them she should be arrested.

On Friday night the woman spoke at the Gospel Mission in Jersey City, and a policeman, stationed there, arrested her when the services were concluded.

Reception to President Finley.

Memphis, Tenn., April 23.—At a reception given him by the Merchants' Exchange today, President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, spoke on "the importance of transportation to commercial development and the dangers to commercial prosperity in legislation crippling the railways." He said in part: "Legislative regulation of the business of common carriers within proper limitations is entirely justifiable. The railways are not opposed to regulation. There is a point, however, beyond which legislation ceases to be regulative and becomes destructive. The corollary of regulation is protection, and no law for the regulation of railroads can be just and equitable unless it affords full protection for the roads as well as for the public. When it is carried beyond this point it becomes oppressive, and endangers not only the further development of transportation, but of all other forms of business. The railways of today are working as earnestly for the development of the territory traversed by them as they have done in former years. They recognize the fact that in doing so they are advancing their own best interests. It is not unreasonable for them to ask and expect the same measure of popular support that was accorded to the roads in their pioneer days. The course of the legislatures of Tennessee and South Carolina in declining to enact laws that would hamper railway development will be beneficial, not only to the States, but to this entire section of the Union. The benefit to these States would not be confined to the encouragement of railway development within their borders, but will extend to the encouragement of investments of all kinds. The best advertisement that any State can have is the widespread knowledge of the fact that its law-makers can be depended upon to give every proper protection to property and not to embark upon policies that would endanger investments."

Ashes.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

Our wise and ever-watchful "city fathers" some time ago passed an ordinance making it compulsory for citizens to be more careful and punctual in the matter of taking out ashes, their idea being, no doubt, that "cleanliness is next to godliness." There are few who will say that there is anything but the best in such regulations, and the people have been glad to cooperate with the authorities in the matter, so far as they have been able to do so. The law has been complied with in the great majority of cases.

But there is another step which the city should take in order to complete the good work, and which it has not taken—at least, it is not so punctual and regular in performing its part of the duty as it requires its citizens to be in the performance of their share. This is the matter of the hauling away of the ashes, after they have been collected and put into receptacles for the "ash man." Why should the city require alertness and promptness on the part of its citizens in the partial performance of a duty which devolves itself equally upon the citizen and upon the city, and yet be negligent itself in the performance of its part of the work, without which the part contributed by the citizen must go for naught?

With malice toward none, with charity for all, we would like to call attention to the fact that a law half-executed is worth little more than no law, and to the fact that the contract between the city and its inhabitants should mean that the city ought to do its part at least as promptly and effectively as it requires the citizens to perform their obligations. Respectfully,

READER OF THE GAZETTE.

Will Work Under a Colored Chief.

There will be no strike in the office of the auditor for the Navy Department, because a colored man has been appointed to that position. Nor will applications by dissatisfied clerks for transfers to jobs in other government bureaus be favorably considered by the administration. The word has been passed down the line that if the clerks in that office do not like the complexion of Ralph Tyler, of Columbus, O., when he comes on to Washington, June 1, to succeed Col. W. W. Brown, of Pennsylvania, as chief of this department bureau, their resignations will be accepted.

LEGAL NOTICES.

VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 17th day of April, 1907.

Joseph Harrison vs. Mary M. Harrison } In Chancery.

Memo. The object of this suit is to obtain an absolute divorce from the bond of matrimony for the complainant from the defendant, and to obtain such other and further relief as to equity may seem right.

It appearing by an affidavit filed in this cause that the defendant, Mary M. Arrest of Terrorist Leaders.

A police raid on an obscure resort in the underground world of the East Side of New York has brought to light the romantic story of an Italian bandit, a fantastic Neapolitan Rob Roy, of great secret power, who, fleeing from his native country to escape arrest for assassination, came to America to wield the same power which was his abroad. The man is Enrico Alfano, called "Erricons," head of the mysterious "Camorristi di Napoli," or Camerra, an Italian organization of terrorists.

When the police raided an East Side den one night last week Alfano was discovered crouching into a corner, seeking to escape the glare of the policeman's lantern. He had been held without bail until today on the charge of murder but unless the necessary requisition papers have arrived from Italy or some strong representations are made from Rome to the government at Washington, it seems likely he will be given his freedom.

Thrilling Experience.

John Mack, a balloonist, is suffering from the result of an experience he had Sunday at Hillside Park, Newark, N. J., where he made an ascension before about 1,500 persons. Because the parachute did not work properly he nearly lost his life.

He had gone up fully 2,000 feet in the air when he prepared to descend. Grasping his parachute, which was one that he had never tried before, he let himself go, expecting his parachute to open by the time he had dropped 100 feet. It failed to open, however, and the balloonist shot down toward the earth like a shot.

The crowd did not at first realize that something had gone wrong. Then, when they saw what had happened, every one expected that Mack would be dashed to death, but when he was about 600 feet from the ground the parachute flared open and, with the aeronaut hardly retaining his hold after the sudden stop, it swung back and forth and with gradually lessening speed descended to the ground, landing on the Erie Railroad tracks.

When aid came Mack was found lying where he had fallen and trembling from the effects of his fright. He tried to get up, but he was too weak, and he had to be taken back to the park in a wagon.

Would-be Groom Disappointed.

A few minutes before the time set for her marriage yesterday to John Cobach, Miss Anna Mercer, of Bayonne, N. J., called it off. Cobach and his attendants, with about 200 guests, were in St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The organist had started to play the wedding march and the priest was ready to officiate. As the time passed the bride-to-be did not appear, the priest dismissed the guests, saying he believed the bride had been taken suddenly ill or had met with an accident.

Cobach hurried to the home of his fiancee. There she was, all dressed up in her wedding gown and wearing a wreath of orange blossoms. Fearfully toying with her wedding bouquet, she told John she couldn't marry him, that she had found her heart was given over to another, whose name she wouldn't tell. Cobach pleaded in vain with the capricious Anna and went off with a heavy heart.

The girl declared that she had donned the wedding gown just to please her mother and she had refused to enter the coach that was sent to take her to the church. She declared her love had suddenly changed. She said she was awfully sorry to have disappointed the guests and spoiled the wedding feast.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. It's nice even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S.
